

Church Guidelines from Canon Law for the Selection of Godparents/Sponsors

- Canon 872 In so far as possible, a person being baptized is to be assigned a sponsor... In the case of an infant baptism, the role is together with the parents to present the child for baptism, and to help him/her to live a Christian life befitting the baptized and faithfully to fulfill the duties inherent in baptism.
- Canon 873 One sponsor, male or female, is sufficient; but there may be two, one of each sex.
- Canon 874 I. To be admitted to undertake the office of sponsor, a person must:
- 1 be appointed ... by the parents or whoever stands in their place, or failing these, by the parish priest or the minister, to be appointed the person must be suitable for this role and have the intention of fulfilling it;
 2. not be less than sixteen years of age, unless a different age has been stipulated by the diocesan bishop, or unless the parish priest or the minister considers that there is a just reason for an exception to be made;
 3. to be a Catholic who has been confirmed and has received the blessed Eucharist, and who lives a life of faith which befits the role to be undertaken;
 4. not labour under a canonical penalty, whether imposed or declared;
 5. not be either the father or the mother of the person to be baptized.
- II. A baptised person who belongs to a non-Catholic ecclesial community may be admitted only in company with a Catholic sponsor, and then simply as a witness to the baptism.
