As individual people we work to produce good fruit (our words and actions) for the Lord. Our hearts should be given over totally to him. As members of the Church we work to preserve the faith handed down to us from the Apostles. If we live our lives in this way, we heed the advice St. Paul gives in today’s second reading. In it he says, “Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you” (Phil 4:7).

The faith given to us by Christ is what holds our Christian lives together. Jesus asks us to make room for him in our hearts so that we can reap the good fruit of the kingdom of God.

NEW MASS SCHEDULE NEXT WEEKEND

(in effect until restrictions on the number of people allowed at each Mass is lifted)

Saturday Vigil:

5:00 pm

Sunday:

9 am &

11 am

Please reserve in advance online or by calling the office beginning on Tuesday at 2:00 pm. This will facilitate the process at the door. The government now allows for 25 participants plus helpers. If you can help us with cleanup after Mass, or with taking attendance or escorting people to their seats, please let us know as we will need more help to support the two Masses on Sunday. Thank you.

STEWARDSHIP: Our collection last week was for $1015.

Thank you for your offerings in support of our parish as a place of Christian worship, instruction and mission.

The stone the builders rejected has become the corner stone...” - Matthew 21:42

Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens. Living a stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be “rejected” by others in today’s society. For example, saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is sign that God is alive and well!

singing to resume at the parish.

A selection of rosary apps are available at <https://catholicapptitude.org/2016/10/06/rosary-apps-for-phones-and-tablets/>.
