Fourth Sunday of Easter

26 April 2015

Christian Vocation

In his Message for today, the World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Pope Francis writes:

The Fourth Sunday of Easter offers us the figure of the Good Shepherd who knows his sheep: he calls them, he feeds them and he guides them. For over fifty years the universal Church has celebrated this Sunday as the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. In this way she reminds us of our need to pray, as Jesus himself told his disciples, so that “the Lord of the harvest may send out labourers into his harvest” (Lk 10:2). Jesus’ command came in the context of his sending out missionaries. He called not only the twelve Apostles, but another seventy-two disciples whom he then sent out, two by two, for the mission (cf. Lk 10:1-6). Since the Church “is by her very nature missionary” (Ad Gentes, 2), the Christian vocation is necessarily born of the experience of mission. Hearing and following the voice of Christ the Good Shepherd, means letting ourselves be attracted and guided by him, in consecration to him; it means allowing the Holy Spirit to draw us into this missionary dynamism, awakening within us the desire, the joy and the courage to offer our own lives in the service of the Kingdom of God...

To hear and answer the Lord’s call is not a private and completely personal matter fraught with momentary emotion. Rather, it is a specific, real and total commitment which embraces the whole of our existence and sets it at the service of the growth of God’s Kingdom on earth. The Christian vocation, rooted in the contemplation of the Father’s heart, thus inspires us to solidarity in bringing liberation to our brothers and sisters, especially the poorest. A disciple of Jesus has a heart open to his unlimited horizons, and friendship with the Lord never means flight from this life or from the world. On the contrary, it involves a profound interplay between communion and mission.

This weekend, we have had the privilege of accompanying our young candidates on retreat, as they prepare to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation next month. They are inspirational, as they eagerly look forward to committing themselves to living as faithful Catholic Christians. Next weekend, it will be the turn of the young ones preparing for their First Holy Communion to spend a day growing closer to our Lord on retreat. On this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, let us pray for all the children in our parish, that they continue to listen to the voice of the Good Shepherd and follow where He leads.

Director of Religious Education

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION: "I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice." - John 10:14-16 When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for things that you want? Do you ever ask Jesus what He wants you to do? How do you listen for the response? The answer is usually in "quiet whispers". Take time in silent, daily prayer to hear His answer.
