Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for June

National Leaders

That national leaders may firmly commit themselves to ending the arms trade, which victimizes so many innocent people.

Peace and Healing

May the Holy Spirit grant peace to the entire world. May He heal the wounds of war and terrorism, which most recently struck innocent civilians in London. Let us pray for the victims and their families.

As summer begins, the possibility of families spending more time together can offer some unique opportunities. You might want to make a “Summer Resolution” to spend more time having family conversations that do not revolve around schedules, school, and so on.

So what would those conversations sound like? To start, be sure that everyone understands the rules, and there are only three:

Everyone must take a turn responding to the question or completing the statement, children and adults alike.

When someone is speaking, everyone else listens, and no one may disagree. Respect everyone’s right to express and share his or her own thoughts.

If the speaker says something nice about you, don’t feel embarrassed or think you need to disagree; simply appreciate it and say thank you.

Here are some conversation starters about Faith:

What is one time in my life when I felt as if God really cares for me?

I know God listens to my prayers because _____.

My favorite Bible story is _____ because _____.

If I was the pope and I could name someone a saint, I would name _____, because _____.

The best thing about being Catholic is _____.

And some suggestions for conversations about your family:

The best thing about being a member of this family is _____.

My favorite family story is _____.

What is your favorite family holiday and why?

What is your favorite family activity to do with a family relative and why?

The most fun we have ever had as a family was the time when _____.

WE ARE CURRENTLY LOOKING FOR...

Come September, we will need helpers for the children’s faith education program on Tuesdays and supervisors for Youth Group meetings. You will not need to commit to coming to every session. If you are interested or want more information, please contact the parish office.

DID YOU FILL IN A QUESTIONNAIRE?

70 copies were taken and so far 20 have been returned! Please bring yours back ASAP. There are baskets for this purpose at the church or feel free to send it back by email.

THANK YOU!!!

For all your help in setting up, serving, and cleaning up, and for your donations of desserts and salads!

Anne-Marie of La Maison Bleue called during the week to say ‘thank you’ for your generous contributions to our May Baby Shower

Collection. They are always looking for the following items: strollers, cribs, baby carriers. If you have any one of these items to donate, there is no need to wait until next May! Please contact the parish office to schedule a drop off time.

WEEKDAY MASS SCHEDULE:

Monday – No Mass;

Tuesday to Friday - 8:30 am.

Please note that both the main entrance and the doors at 71 Roosevelt are open.

DON’T FORGET WAYNE... As the summer approaches, many parishioners leave on vacation or to their summer homes and are unable to help during Mass. If you are in town, please consider offering to help Wayne with collections or in bringing up the gifts.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION: Copies of the Diocesan press release concerning the allegations against Fr. Brian Boucher are available at all the entrances to the church. Please do not hesitate to call Father Robert at 514-738-1080 or Father Ray Lafontaine at 514-925-4300, ext. 314, to voice your concerns or ask questions. The Archdiocese may also be contacted through a confidential helpline, at 514-925-4321 or by e-mail, at assistance@diocesemontreal.org. Thank you for your understanding, patience and cooperation. Please keep all members of our parish family in your prayers.

“Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father.”
MATTHEW 10:32

Do you share your Catholic faith with others? Do you defend your Catholic faith or do you remain silent when the situation arises? Do you pray in public before meals? Pray for the strength and courage to be a joyful witness of our Catholic faith when the opportunity presents itself.
