Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel, Mark 9: 30-37.

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear the familiar teaching of Jesus in this Gospel, what word or phrase strikes you? What image lingers in your heart?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: What are some specific ways in which you can serve your friends or family members?

Question for Youth: Sometimes, when we strive to be first or be the one that wins, we hurt others. When has striving to be first hurt others? What can you do differently in the future to help others to succeed?

Question for Adults: Is the role of being a servant for others easy or difficult for you to embrace?

Dear parishioners,

As we have already announced in our previous bulletins, Father Brian Boucher, a former pastor of this parish, is scheduled to stand trial, beginning in November, on charges related to sexual abuse of minors. As you know, this news has taken its toll on our parish community, and many parishioners, as well as myself, want tangible signs that the Archdiocese stands unequivocally with us.

As a result, Archbishop Christian Lépine has asked Bishop Alain Faubert and Father Raymond Lafontaine to visit our parish on Sunday, October 14. They will celebrate our 10 a.m. Mass, after which they will meet and dialogue with us regarding mutual concerns, frustrations, expectations and questions, such as where do we go from here? I've outlined some guidelines for the meeting in last week's bulletin.

So that this meeting will be mutually beneficial, please feel free to share your outstanding concerns with me beforehand, and I will deliver them to Bishop Faubert and Fr. Lafontaine prior to our parish meeting.

I know that parishioners need to feel comfortable to express themselves, so be assured that this will be a parish meeting -- that is, a meeting for parishioners -- it is not a public meeting and, therefore, not open to the media.

Once again, I strongly encourage all parishioners to attend, whether or not you knew Fr. Brian, as an expression of support and solidarity. Please continue to pray for our community, for all those concerned by this development and for our Church.

Pastor

are welcome, from beginners to those well-acquainted with this practice. This traditional form of Christian prayer is practiced throughout the world. After a short preparatory reflection and hymn, sit quietly with the Lord for about 20 minutes.

“Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.” (1 Thes. 5:11) Whatever challenges we are facing personally or as a parish family, praying together as we do at Mass sustains us and keeps us on solid ground. As we prepare for the Bishop's visit, we invite you to join our MEDITATION GROUP on Tuesdays, beginning October 2, at 7 pm, in the boardroom. All

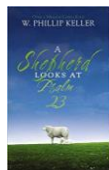

Is your child registered in our Faith Education program? Please be sure to attend our MANDATORY PARENT MEETING, this Wednesday September 26 at 7:15 pm in the Parish Hall via 71 Roosevelt. BRING ST. JOSEPH HOME!!! Dozen of parishioners have taken our little statue of St Joseph, along with a prayer card, home with them for a week to pray for vocations in our parish. How about you? Sign-up sheets are available at the back of the church.

"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." MARK 9:35

Jesus teaches us that we are called to serve one another. Sacrifice is not a word that many people like to hear. We think it means that we must give up something that we want. However, the literal meaning of sacrifice is "to make holy," from the words "sacer" = sacred and "facere" = to make. In other words, we make our lives holy by sharing our gifts in the service of God.
